Glazgow Timez. Meekly

DEVOTED TO POLITICAL, AGRICULTURAL, COMMERCIAL AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

VOL: 12.

CITY OF GLASGOW, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 20, 1851.

NO: 38.

Street, Up Stairs, west door to Glasgow House.

$2 In Advance—$3 At the End of the Year $1 In Advance to Clubs of 20.

V. B. PALMER, the American Newspape Bloomington-Thomas G. Sharp. Linneus—Carlos Boardman.
Cambridge—John H. Grove.
Chillicothe—W. C. Samuel.
M.lan—Stephens, Hines & Co.

DR. J. A. LEWIS. OFFERS his Professional services to the public.
Diffee at present, in the Drug Store of Messrs
Glasgow, August 14, 1851.

DOCTORS VAUGHAN & CAMPBELL Madicine, &c., &c. Office next door to Dr. Vs. residence. August 7, 1851.

F. A. SAVAGE, DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES, Hats, Caps, Hard and Queensware, Nails, &c., WATER STREET, GLASGOW, MO.

DEALERS IN Corner of Water and Market street. GLASGOW, MO.

CARLOS BOARDMAN, Attorney at Law, Linneus, Linn County, Mo.

JOHN C. CRAWLEY, ATTORNEY AT LAW, GLASGOW, MO.,

BORT. T. PREWITT. PREWITT & HENRY.

November, 15, 1849-y. G. H. BURCKHARTT,

THOS. SHACKELFORD. ATTORNEY AT LAW, GLASGOW, MO.,

Cabinet Makers.

MEDICAL NOTICE.

LIFE INSURANCE,

STOVES AND TINWARE.

MR. CROCKETT'S ADDRESS.

wives and orphaned children. The time has been when military prowess most honored who had the strongest arm and perhaps the time will never come, and noble purposes; they stimulate us to deeds of noble daring, and when employed for legitimate ends, are worthy of the admi- live is emphatically practical in its tenden- locality, nor deterred even by the most for- tation, the most brilliant qualities of the military

poor neglected Fu'ton, whose genius strug- to paint portraits or potray landscapes. We admirably interspersed with forest and prai- fifty miles in length, at a cost of over six lumber from the tops of the mountains-Delivered at Hannibal, Nov. 3d, at the gled on through poverty and tears, to the light our cities with a temperate and salubrious climate; millions of dollars, from Albany to the city stone from the quarries in their sides - herds glorious consummation which is to render the bowels of the earth, whilst the web of with all the advantages of a refined and cul- of New York, and which runs the whole of cattle, horses, and hogs-milk and cheese his name immortal. The first displayed con- the silk worm is fashioned by machinery into tivated society; with a moral and orderly distance, immediately on the bank of the from their dairies-turkeys and chickens MR. PRESIDENT, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: | siderable skill in the strategy of war, and at | beautiful raiment to adorn the persons. If | population; with schoolhouses and churches | Hudson, the finest stream an the continent | from their poultry yards; in short, every-When any great enterprise is about to be the expense of many thousands of human we have not taught the blind to see and the in every neighborhood; with this great high- for navigable purposes. On this river, the thing that contributes to the comfort or luxentered upon, which, in its results, is to lives, cut short the victorious career of an dumb to speak, we have at least, illminated way terminating at one extremity on the magnificent vessels which navigate it, run usy of man-let him observe these things ameliorate the conditions of a people, either ambitious chieftain. The last evercome by their darkened understandings with the Mississippi and at the other on the Mississippi by improving its morals, increasing its intel- his genius the rapid currents of mighty riv- rays of religion, truth and knowledge. We I can imagine nothing that would be want- but this was altogether too slow, and hence will confess that, for the first time, he has ligence, or adding to its physical comforts, i ers, subdued the winds and waves of the cross trackless occans, with as perfect a ing to render it one of the most desirable the rail road was constructed, over which a learned to appreciate justly the value of rais eminently proper that the commencement ocean; revolutionized the commerce of the knowledge of courses and distances, as if portions of the earth. Such eminent advan- large party from New York, were recently tional enterprise. There are certain things of such a work should be commemorated world; has sent civilization and refinement we were upon some well beaten highway. - tages as these cannot and will not be over- conveyed to Albany, 150 miles, in three which to be properly appreciated, must be with appropriate ceremonies. In ancient into remote parts of the earth; and in a thou- We amputate limbs and perform the most looked by those in search of homes. The hours and fifty minutes, or at the rate of actually seen with the eye. Language is times, when a nation was about to engage in sand ways promoted the comfort and happi- terrible surgical operations, whilst the pa- tide of population will pour in with a ra- more than forty miles an hour. Yes, my incompetent to portray them in their true battle, it sought to propitiate the favor of ness of his race. Every individual whom I tient is luxuriating in a pleasant dream. We pidity which will astonish the most sanguine friends, incredible as it would have seemed colors. Of such are the falls of Niagara, Agent, is the only authorized Agent for this paper the gods by splendid oblations, and at this have the honor to address, is in a great deday the Indian tribes, when preparing for gree indebted to the genius of Fulton for a almost infinite distances to the sun, the moon | With this increase of population, will come the finest navigable streams, and the fleetest ness and sublimity of the ocean, the Alpine war, seek tonerve their arms for the contest large portion of the comforts he daily en- and the stars, whilst we can define with un- a corresponding increase of wealth, of com- vessels that ever turned a wheel, are to be, heights of Switzerland, and various other by celebrating their victories in advance,- joys. Every one of the magnificent steam- erring certainty the courses of the planets, fort, of social enjoyment, and of all the arts in agreat measure superseded by their pow- objects in the natural world. The pen of But it is no anticipated achievement in arms, ers that lands at your wharf is an eloquent as they sing the praises of the Creator, and refinements of civilized life. Towns erful rivals: the rail road and the steam the poet, and the brush of the painter, are no victory to be hereafter won over a con- witness, not only to the power, but to the Lately it has been announced, that hence- and villages will spring up as if by magic, car. Nor is it difficult to comprehend why lutterly impotent to convey to the mind any ouered foe, no feat of military prowess to be glorious results of his genius. Every note forth we are to subdue terrific conflagrations along the line of the road; school houses this is so; for although the steamboat "walks just conception of these sublime works of hereafter celebrated in story and in song, that from the steam whistle on the majestic river with a little vapour which may almost be and churches will multiply with astonishing the water like a thing of life," the "iron nature. The same remark in some degree has called together this large audience. The in front of us, but sings a requiem to his carried in your trunk. There are but a few, rapidity; new farms will be rapidly opened horse' almost outstrips the wind in its is true of railreads. We may read glowtime has been when the glory of a nation memory, whilst the prow of every steam a very few of the triumphs of science and and the older ones enlarged; log cabins will flight; and whilst rivers are locked up with ing descriptions of them, and may listen to was reckoned by the trophies which it had vessel that cleaves the waves, inscribes his art; and yet they will suffice to remind you speedily give place to splendid mansions; ice, or dried up from drought, the railroad highly colored pictures of their murvellous won in battle-when chief megistrates had name upon the waters. Nor is it upon tur- of the immense progress the human mind extensive manufactures will very soon grow stretches its cold length along, defving the results, but believe me, my friends, it is nono other ambition, than to extend their do- bulent rivers and stormy oceans only, that has made in the march of improvement. up, and along the entire route will be heard frost and impervious to the hettest rays of tual observation alone that can duly impress minion and perpetuate their power with the we witness the triumphs of his immortal Amongst the various inventions of the last the hum of industry and the blithesome song the sun. Hence I maintain that railroads us with their vast importance. We must sword, when the only road to fame lay across genius. By slight modifications, the steam half century, there are few, if any, destined of a happy and thrifty population. Believe are in all respects more valuable than rivers; see them in all their minute details; must desolated fields and conquered provinces engine, which was formerly employed only to exert a more potent influence upon the me, my friends, this is no delusive picture and that the road from here to St. Joseph, examine closely the powerful influence when the loftiest aim of human ambition to propel floating palaces upon the waters, physical condition of man, and perhaps I of a morbid imagination, conjused up to will confer greater benefits upon the count which they exert upon trade in all its rumiseemed to be to imbrue the earth with gore, is now used to scale mountains, glide over may also add upon his intellectual and moral quite your doubts or to soothe your vanity. try which it will traverse, than if such a fleations; must actually follow after the and to revel amidst the tears of widowed vallies, and almost to outstrip the wind in its nature, than such enterprises as that whose On the contrary, it is but a feeble delinea- stream as the Mississippi, were suddenly to "iron horse," as he speeds along in his fleet career, as it ministers to the comfort commencement we are this day to commen- tion in no exaggerated terms, of results burst from the earth at St. Joseph and emp- swift career, before he can realize, in its and luxury of man. The "iron horse," as orate. The rise and progress of railroad en- which will be more than realized-visible, ty its waters in you magnificent stream at true magnitude, the vast importance of the was the only road to preferment, and he was it awakes the echoes in our forests, and terprise will hereafter form one of the most practicably realized, should this magnificent Hannibal. If this he so, and in my con-rail road movement. I heard the President startles the deer in our beautiful prairies, intensely interesting chapters in the history enterprize be successfully consummated, science I believe it, you need indulge in no of your Company remark in debate at Jef-

when mankind will cease to be captivated listen in your own streets to these notes of an influence upon its trade inferior only to lican institutions allow the widest scope, money most wisely in constructing it.

Particular attention paid to collecting.

Office in Crigler's Frame building two does above the Receiver's Office.

The physical condition of society, and the stockhol
of society, and the stockhol into close juxtaposition. It stimulates in does above the Receiver's Office.

The physical condition of society, and the stockhol
of society, and the stockhol
into close juxtaposition. It stimulates in ders may anticipate large dividends upon carries also at his side the poor artist or its commerce literature and morals. I have their investment. But if it were proper to lither investment. But if it were proper to lither investment. men, and the admiration of mankind, I hold, ed, by low debauchery and degrading vices, trade in its various ramifications, gives life do so, I think I could easily demonstrate, knowledge, establishes religion, encourages of individual citizens, and promote the genthat he, who in the peaceful walks of life, At a still later period, religious fanaticism and vigor to commercial enterprise, builds that the stock of this road will be not only a virtue, fosters art and science, promotes ral good of the whole. But in this country, ATTORNEY AT LAW, HUNTSVILLE, MO., originates or executes great schemes of withered up the gentle charities of life, and up cities with a mogic power, and peoples paying, but a profitable investment. If, refinement, and tends in a thousand ways there is a wider, higher, nobler sense in WILL practice law in the counties of Randolph Social reform, wherby his fellow-men are and Schuyler. All business entrusted to him will receive his prompt attention.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store.

Office in the second story above McCampbell & Coate's store in the social reform, which the should mever receive a dollar capable. We may form the distinguished military heroes, whose for a time ruled supreme. But ours has enquire, therefore, with more minuteness by dicious investment of their money. On the results of a similar nature achieved by In the United States, we are in the midst names adorn the page of history, not one has been justly styled the utilitarian age. It is what process railroads achieve these aston- contrary, they will be doubly compensated, steam boats. Suppose steam boats had ne- of a grand experiment; we are testing, for WILL practice in the Courts of Howard, Saline, Cooper, Randolph and Chariton counties. Go Office on first street.

Stand boats. Suppose steam boats had neof a grand experiment; we are testing, for ishing results. The projectors of the Hanby the chanced value of real estate, the inhave been the condition of the Mississippi ces. man's capacity for self government.—

own immortal Washington. He led his counhave been the condition of the Mississippi ces. man's capacity for self government. trymen to victory over an insolent and haugh- a gutta percha or gum-elastic age. The last, ed with most commendable zeal, in a vast creased value of agricultural products on Valley? I speak not of its wealth, its come Discarding the dormas of European politic PHILIP BAIER, Dealer in Family Groceries, Wines, ty foe, only to teach them moderation in the perhaps, is the best definition of it. It has enterprise, involving a heavy expenditure of the line of the road, and the energy which merce, nor its agriculture, but of the moral clans, we have struck out a new path in the Water street, Gasgow, Missouri.

K EEPS constantly on hand a general assortment of the governing of the public is respectfully called.

K of the public is respe their own passions. He made his country free, that it might forever remain a beaconMan is but just beginning to fathor the vantages commensurate with the expense of tempise, would scarcely credit the statethe midst of an ignorant population, is to unwould be diversified and apparently hostile light to other nations, guiding their steps depths of his own genius, and to appreciate the enterprise, or whether they are bestow- ments which the plain, unvarnished truth lock their understandings and let in the light interests to reconcile. It could scarcely from the darkness of despotism, to the light justly the hitherto inscrutable mysteries of ing their time, labor and money, upon a fruit- would justify, on this branch of the subject. of truth and knowledge. It is literally true, have been anticipated, that the cotton and of a rational and well ordered liberty. He the material world. During the last half less undertaking. In the latter event, they But some idea may be formed of the vast that no country can have an ignorant or visus sugar planters of the south, the manufac-WILL make to order, in the nextest and most has, therefore, conferred incalculable bless- century, the fountains of knowledge appear had better abandon it at once, but if the truth changes in the existing order of things closus population, if it is intersected by nu- turers of the North, and the farmers of the North, and the North, an ings not only upon his own country, but to have been unscaled, and to have sent forth of the first proposition can be demonstrated which this road will accomplish, by suppoupon mankind at large. And yet it may a chrystal, gushing stream, throughout the they will have the strongest possible motive, sing that divine omnipotence, for some pur- to accomplish more than all other causes the same National flag, without occasional well be doubted, whether even to Washing- earth. Within that period, the human intel- to presecute the work with increased enton, the world owes so heavy a debt of grat- lect seems to have been illuminated with a ergy and zeal. For myself I do not enter- from Hannibal to St. Joseph, a mognificent religion, fostering science and art, and ele- of supposed conflicts of interests. MEDICAL NOTICE.

DR. J. HAYS would respectfully inform the citizens of the adjoining neighborhood that he has permanently located himself at his permanently means of human enjoyment. Of all the war- servation have been combined into a thou- it will be built at a very moderate expense, dred, three hundred and perhaps five hundr means of human enjoyment. Of all the warhen not professionally absent.

Da. Havs will give his attention to the diseases

The distance of human enjoyment. Of all the warservation have been combined into a thouit will be built at a very moderate expense, drea, in reclination to the diseases riors whose fame has filled the world, Nasand useful, practical, forms, for the advancecompared with the cost of similar enterpriper cent. in value; population would pour doubts the truth of my conclusions, he have seen schemes agitated at the North, in the diseases of human enjoyment. poleon stands unrivalled for his skill in ment of human happiness, and the elevation see elsewhere. In the second place, it will in from all directions; towns and cities should embark upon the first steam boat, on tending to influence the jealeusy of the arms-for consumate generalship-for the of our race, intellectually and morally.- traverse a country of unexampled fertility, would grow up in almost a day; and all the a voyage to the eastern States. Let him go South; whilst at the South we have witness-TAVING been appointed Agent for the "Union Matual Insurance Company" of Boston, will take risks on the Lives of white persons only, for one year, or for Life-time, at the lowest rates of Premium. A plan of Insurance with the Directors names can be seen, and pamphlists furnished graits, the road will produce even more by application to the Agent at Roanoke.

September, 26, 1853.

The WHITE, ROANOKE, MO.,

We use the vastness of his genius—and the prodiging a deliberate, concerted effort by certain deposition as any portion of the globe. This would appear, we can searcely advance, population as any portion of the globe. This would speedily ensue. If then it be concerted effort by certain deposition as any portion of the globe. This would speedily ensue. If then it be concerted effort by certain to ded, that the opening of a navigable river, one of the globe. This would speedily ensue. If then it be concerted effort by certain ded, that the opening of a navigable river, one of the globe, this in a very few ded, that the opening of a navigable river, one of the globe, the union of the globe, this in a very few ded, that the opening of a navigable river, one of the road will not only double, but in a very few ded, that the opening of a navigable river, one of the road will produce this marvellous change, it would produce the union. Many ded, that the construction of the results which he is can be weather that the construction of the results when the produce of the union. The produce which he sterile fill the construction of the great obscure German, who discovered the art of at the rate of forty miles an hour, whilst we convenient to market, with greater commer- factorily established, that rivers cannot com- crossing a river, now rattling through a vil- measures. In my judgment, these measures.

printing. The Duke of Wellington, the hero are reclining upon cushioned seats, engaged cial advantages, and from whence they could pete with rail roads as a general thing. Ri- lage, and finally terminating on the shore of ures were dictated by profound wisdom and John R. Carson,

Respectfully announces to the public that he has on hand an extensive assortment of the has on hand an extensive assortment of Stoyes and Tin Ware all of which he will achievement. He basks in the smile of roy faithful messenger of business or pleasure. This road completed what country under lab.

To Waterloo, the conqueror of Napoleon, yet in reading or in social conversation. We visit their kindred and friends at a less sactory and speedy means of transportation. In tropolis of the Union. Let him mark, as port to be, founded upon a fair and reasonation. The basks in the smile of roy faithful messenger of business or pleasure. This road completed what country under lab.

ration they excite. History has furnished cies. From the earliest period of the world, midable obstacles. It runs over or under I have already endeavored to demonstrate but the spelling book and the bible. It not But if railroads have wrought these mar-thirty years ago, the time has arrived when the Mammoth Cave of Kentucky, the vastthe greatest emount of mere physical cour- but pays an elegant tribute to the honored of physical science. The invention of the Such have been the results of railroad enter- idle speculations, as to the amount of divi- ferson City last winter, that the State of us with many illustrious examples wherein down to the present day, the tastes, pursuits mountains, crosses rivers, glides along the that this road, will create wealth, attract only opens farms and build's up cities, but it vellous changes in New England and other and habits of mankind, have varied accord- brinks of precipices, is stayed in its career population, foster agriculture, encourage erects churches and school houses, hospitals sterile regions, how magical must be their chieftain have been united with the more ing to the circumstances by which they by neither winds nor waves, and yet it is as manufactures, and stimulate industry in all and alms houses. When it conveys to mar- results in such a State as ours, where nasolid, though less showy virtues of the pa- were surrounded. At one period-for ex- submissive to the will of man, as a well its multiplied forms. If it shall produce ket the wheat and tobacco of the farmer, it ture has spread out broad and beautiful satriot and the sage. Such men combine in comple, during the palmy days of the Roman trained spaniel. With its shrill whistle it these results, it will have conferred incaleus returns with the school master and the min- vanualis, reared up majestic forests, conthe highest possible degree, all the qualities empire, it was military prowess alone, startles the denizens of populous cities, or lable benefits on the community, even the ister. When it delivers the merchant his coaled rich mineral resources beneath the JNO. W. HENRY. which command respect and claim the hom- which claimed the undivided homage of man- frightens the wolf from his lair, in the depths it should pay very meagre dividends to its boxes and his bales, it puts down also at his surface, and has crowned the whole with a age of mankind. But, whilst he who draws kind. At another—as during the sunny of the forest. It breaks down the apparent- stockholders. The occasion does not de- door his books and newspapers. As it con- temperate and salubrious climate! ATTORNEYS AT LAW, FAYETTE, MO., his sword, and wields it with a strong arm days of Greece, sculpture and painting, poe- ly impassible barriers of nature, almost an- mand, and perhaps would not justify, any veys into the country the shrewd speculator. Thus far I have spoken of rail roads, as WILL attend to all business entrusted to them in Howard, and the counties adjoining.— and a valiant heart in defence of his country and song bound the popular mind, as in nihilates distances, and brings remote points array of figures to prove, that the stockhol- in flour or hemp, in chickens or cheese, it they affect the physical condition of society, discross of at low prices.

Particular attention paid to guitering.—
Orders in the place or country, promptly attended mations, as the great Captain of the age.—

We have annihilated time and space, and converse with our friends a thousand miles the emigrant, than that between Hannibal er, and far less hazardous. Hence we find age. As human nature is now constituted, name of Fulton. A few months hence, I railroad has indeed marked a new era in the prize throughout the world; but more espec- dends, which the road will pay. If it pays Missouri could not do a wiser thing than trust, that you, the citizens of Hannibal, will social condition of the world, and will exert ially in the United States, where our repub- none at all, you will have expended your to compel twenty thousand of its inhabi-with the glare of military renown. The nod- praise, from the "iron horse" to the memory that of the application of steam to navigation, for the expansion of industry and furnish. Thus far I have spoken of rail roads, and travel over their rail roads. I was fording plume, the glittering sabre, the loud- of this great benefactor of his race. Am I In many respects, I think, the results will the richest rewards to energy and talent in chiefly as they effect the physical condition cibly struck with the remark at the time; mouthed cannon, the soul-stirring drum and not, then, justified, in saying that the great- be even more important than those which have all the walks of life. For a time the opinion of the country—as they create wealth, fos- but since then, I have myself travelled over ear-piercing fife, the "pomp and circum- est warriors of ancient or of modern times, ensued from the application of steam to the prevailed that rairoads would only answer ter commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now WILL continue the practice of the Law, in care piercing fife, the "pomp and circumness entrusted to his care will receive prompt attention."

April 3, 1851.

est warriors of ancient or of modern times, and an now prevailed that rairoads would only answer the commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat on short routes and between large commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat of posterity, compared with those of the large commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat of posterity, compared with those of the large commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat of posterity, compared with those of the large commercial enterprise, and encourage these roads for the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat of posterity, compared with those of the large commercial enterprise.

They are the commercial enterprise, and encourage the first time, and am now propulsion of vessels. Whilst the steamboat of posterity, compared with those of the large commercial enterprise. the hearts of men and claim their passionate of posterity, compared with those of the is necessarily confined to the courses of rive cial cities. That opinion, however, is now and nobler purposes than these. They are that the remark was dictated by profound admiration. God has doubtless implanted great inventors, who amidst poverty and suf- ers and lakes, and can only dispense its bless- completely exploded, and experience has the pioneers of civilization, the friends of wisdom. It needs only that the people these feelings in the human heart for wise fering, and in defiance of the neglect and de- ings upon their margins, the steam car is demonstrated; that the most profitable roads education and art, the auxiliaries of religion, should be made to see in their own persons, rision of the world, have wrought out these sent wherever the demands of commerce are those which traverse rich agricultural re- the great pacificators of the world. As the practical workings of rail reads, to renmagnificent results. The age in which we require it. It is confined to no particular gions, remote from other means of transper- the rail road enters the forest, it carries der them as enthusiastic advocates of such with it, not only the plough and the loom, enterprises as I confess myself to be.

to.
Shop next door above Dunnica & Hutchings store.
Shop next door above Dunnica & Hutchings store.

Shop next door above Dunnica & Hutchings store.

Glegow, June 26, 1851.

mations, as the great Captain of the age.—
converse with our friends a thousand miles the emigrant, than that between Hannibal er, and far less hazardous. Hence we find and the new farms that are being opened;—
are not only entitled to be respected as such, but as we value the peace of the country and St. Joseph? With a soil of inexhaustore, that the people of New York, have just put let him observe the varied and novel articles and the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile fertility, beautifully undulating, and into operation a rail road one hundred and of completely and the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile fertility, beautifully undulating, and into operation a rail road one hundred and of completely and the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union, it is the duntile for the integrity of the Union in the integrity of the Un

BY CLARK H. GREEN PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY MORNING.

Rates of Advertising.

$1 per square of 12 lines or less, for the First Insertion, and Fifty Cents for subsequent ones.

Liberal deductions to Yearly Advertisers.

veite-Andrew J. Hernden, intsville-W. R. Samuel, G. H. Burckhart.

DR. M. J RUCKER,

WILL attend to the various duties of his pro-fession with promptitude and fidelity.
Office at the Glasgow House.
Glasgow, August 21, 1851. CARD.

DEALER IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC

J. C. TRUEFITT & CO., Fancy and Staple Dry Goods,

LOGAN D. DAMERON, DEALER IN Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, Water Street, Glasgow, Mo. KEEPS constantly on hand a general assortment

WILL give prompt attention to all business entrasted to him in the Courts of Howard and adjoining counties.

Office with Drs. Vaughan & Campbell,
Glasgow, June 19, 1851—tf.

HANNA & MATTHEWS, Water S.reet, Glosgow, Mo.

als, all kinds of Funktions.

Particular attention paid to making Coffins.

Shop second door above Dunnica & Hutchinson's Store.

April 11, 1851.

the

will cat; best; com-Sick ■

D.

v.the •

V.